

163- 11th Street

This house was home to Frank and Nettie Cowie between 1911- 1962. It is a beautiful example of a simple Queen Anne Style house and features a curved banister, double doors between the dining room and parlour, corner block woodwork and high baseboards restored to the original woodgrain. The verandah was reconstructed in 1989.