

164 - 8th Street

This is an exquisite example of the Gothic Revival Style with the peaked dormer over the door, the pointed window in the dormer, the pinnacle at the top of the dormer, molded eaves and the decorative window surrounds.

It was built in 1888 for southern Manitoba's first Presbyterian missionary and school inspector, Reverend Hugh J. Borthwick.