

321 Stephen Street

Original Construction Date: 1903

Designers/Builders: ----

The Starland Theatre (formerly Bradford's Mens Clothing Store) owned and operated by Jake Kendall was operating as early as 1914 or earlier. Jake's son Ernie took over in 1938 and built the Kenmore, an "up-to-date" theatre in 1951 to 1976 (Morden Cinema). The Starland was converted to the Pembina Café. It is now Lucky Restaurant Chinese Food (formerly Fortune Chop Suey).

Original and Current Use Original: Theatre, Current: Restaurant